SHOWING WORLD: THE UK'S ORIGINAL SHOWING MAGAZINE

6 printed and digital issues per year

At Showing World, we're dedicated to keeping members of the showing community up to date with all the latest news, trends and results in the world of showing.

This modern, varied, and inclusive publication is mailed directly to an engaged readership in the UK, Ireland, Europe, Australia, and the USA, including the industries most enthusiastic amateurs and influential professionals.

Showing World is produced by a committed team immersed in the showing community, including leading judges, riders and professionals, and is the only dedicated showing magazine edited by a panel judge and competitor.

SHOWING WORLD CONTENT

Showing World includes news from showing's leading societies, comprehensive competition reports from grass roots to national championship level; interviews with showing's leading figures – from riders to judges, officials and breeders; relevant and informative expert-led features; and training and opinions from industry leaders.

At Showing World, we also pride ourselves on celebrating our readership's successes in the showing and in breeding.

With targeted features and an engaged readership, Showing World is a perfect fit for brands and businesses looking to connect with a substantial, committed and affluent equestrian audience.
